

Name of the Faculty	Faculty of Medicine, Jagiellonian University Medical College
Name of the unit conducting the module	Faculty of Health Sciences Institute of Nursing and Midwifery Department of Philosophy and Bioethics
Name of the training module	Ethics in Medicine
Module code
Language of training	English
Education effects for the training module	D.W13. know and understand the main concepts, theories, principles and rules of ethics which serve as a general framework for the proper interpretation and analysis of moral and medical issues; D.W14. knows the principles of altruism and clinical responsibility and understands the function principles of the therapeutic team; D.U12. observe the ethical standards of professional activities; D.U13. has the ability to recognize the ethical dimensions of medical decisions and distinguish between factual and normative aspects;
Type of training module (mandatory/facultative)	Mandatory
Year of study	2-6
Semester	3
Name of the person leading the module	Zbigniew Zalewski MD, Weronika Chańska MD, Marcin Waligóra MD
Name of the person examining or granting a credit if it is not the person conducting the module
Methods of performance	Seminars
Initial and additional requirements	none
Type and number of class hours that require direct involvement both teacher and students, when such activities are provided for the module	20 hours – seminars
Number of ECTS credits allocated to the module	1
Balance of ECTS points	Participation in seminars, the ability to analyze ethical argumentation and its application to solving morally controversial cases
Teaching methods applied	Seminars - analysis of problems based on selected philosophical texts, discussions on key concepts and ethical values, case studies, papers on topics chosen by students
Methods for testing and evaluation criteria for learning outcomes achieved by students	grading, presentation
Form and conditions for module passing, including the rules of admission to the exam, pass, and the form and condition for completion of the various activities within the scope of the module	Passing essay
Training module content	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Why does medicine need ethics? Moral traditions of medicine and contemporary medical practice 2. Basic concepts and theories of moral philosophy and main approaches to medical ethics 3. Human beings, persons, human dignity and the value of life 4. The problem of patient's autonomy – its sources, extent and limitations 5. Ethics at the beginning of human life: abortion and assisted procreation as moral problems 6. Moral significance of new medical technologies (transplantations, techno-modifications of human body) 7. Ethics at the end of life: moral debates on intensive and palliative care, and on euthanasia 8. Ethical framework of experimentation on human beings and the limits of scientific progress 9. Justice in healthcare – moral dimensions of medical economy 10. The physician and the patient – whom they are in clinical encounter nowadays?

Basic and supplementary bibliography to complete the module	see booklist
Dimension, principles and form of awarded for practice when the training program provides practice	n/a